

NEWSLETTER - JUNE - JULY 2006

Welcome to the Warsash Theatre Club Newsletter (3)

Strawberry Fields

Saturday 1st July the theatre club will be participating in the Warsash Festival at the Strawberry Fields. We have a double pitch; one part will have face painting, hook a duck, and two bran tubs. If we have space we will do Human hoopla as well. In the other space a group of us will perform a sketch 'If I was not upon the stage.....' at 1330, 1430 and 1530. All support greatly appreciated, even if you can only spend an hour helping out, our aim is to raise funds for the club as well as a donation to charity... so come along and have some fun... parents and children all welcome!! Set up starts at 1030 and the festival ends at 1630. Don't forget to bring your cash!!!

PANTO

Readings are well under way and Anne has the onerous task of casting over the next few weeks. Just remember that whether you are lucky enough to get a main part or not there is loads to do in the chorus and back stage, we can assure you it will be a rewarding experience.

The club would like to express a vote of thanks to David Bevis, who across the majority of 21 years has tirelessly devoted his time as music director for the panto production. David has this year after careful consideration decided to step down from this role though he has agreed to help out with music sourcing etc... THANKS DAVID!!!!

So, we have a vacancy... do you know anyone who is musically gifted and would be prepared to help out? We have yet to decide on how to best proceed but if you can volunteer or know anyone willing then please let Anne Ford know as soon as possible. Thanks.

SHED CLEAROUT HELP REQUIRED!!!!

The club is lucky to have some great storage facilities, however to make it a better work shop and safer environment to work in we need a massive clearout. The weekend of 22nd/23rd July has been earmarked to get in skips and have a really good clean up. Adult help would be greatly appreciated. Sorry can't accommodate the youth as the work is heavy going and we can't guarantee safety, but any parents willing to give an hour or so please can they contact Ian Hardwick on 01489 583804.

Youth Meeting

All youth members should now have had an invitation to an open evening from Anne Ford for the 3rd July. The purpose behind this is to let you hear more about the club and your opportunity to have your opinions heard by some members of committee. Make the most of this time and come along and have your say! Please reply to Anne on whether you can attend or not ASAP. Thanks

Don't forget to check our website for latest developments.
